General Assessment

49. NOTIFICATION OF INTENDED REASSESSMENT AND INSTRUCTIONS AS TO PRINCIPLES OF ASSESSMENT- (1) Assessment of land-revenue may be general or special.

(2) A general reassessment of the land-revenue of any area shall not be undertaken without the previous sanction of the State Government and notification of that sanction.

(3) In granting such sanction the State Government may give such instructions consistent with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder as it may deem fit.

50. MODE OF DETERMINING ASSESSMENT- A general assessment shall be made by a Revenue Officer.

(2) Before making such assessment the Revenue Officer shall report through the Financial Commissioner for the sanction of the State Government his proposal with regard thereto.

51. ANNOUNCEMENT OF ASSESSMENT - (1) After consideration of the proposals submitted by the Revenue Officer under the provisions of sections 50 the State Government shall pass such orders as it may deem fit subject to the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4), and on the receipt of such orders the Revenue Officer shall make an order determining the assessment proper for each estate concerned and shall announce it in such manner the State Government may by rule prescribe.

(2) At the time of announcing the assessment the Revenue Officer shall also declare the date from which it is to take effect and, subject to the other [provisions of this Act, it shall take effect accordingly].

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (4) the average rate of incidence on the cultivated area of the land revenue imposed under the provisions of sub-section (1) on any assessment circle, forming part of any area in respect of which a notification has been issued under sub-section (2) of section 49 shall not exceed the rate of incidence of the land-revenue imposed at the last previous assessment by more than one fourth provided that the rate of incidence of the assessment imposed on any estate shall not exceed the rate of incidence of the previous assessment on that estate by more than two-thirds.

(4) The provisions of sub-section (3) shall not be applicable in the case of land which has not previously been assessed to land revenue or in which canal irrigation has been introduced after the date of the orders passed under the provision of sub-section (1) at the last previous assessment, or in the case of the land of which the last previous assessment was made under the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 59 in the case of an area which has been declared by notification to be urban assessment circle and for the purpose of calculating the increase in incidence of the land revenue for the purpose of subsection (3) all such land shall be excluded from calculation:

The Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887

Provided that no area shall be declared to be an urban assessment circle, unless it is included within the limits of a municipality or of an area in respect of which a notification has been issued section 241 of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1911, or of an area declared to be a small town under the provisions of the Punjab Small Towns Act, 1921.

52. APPLICATION FOR CONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT- The landowner may, within thirty days from the date of announcement of the assessment, present a petition to the Revenue Officer for a reconsideration of the amount, form or conditions of the assessment.

(2) Where the land revenue is assigned, the assignee thereof may within thirty days from that date, present a like petition to the Revenue Officer.

(3) The order passed by the Revenue Officer on the petition shall set forth his reasons for granting or refusing it.

53. CONFIRMATION AND DURATION OF ASSESSMENT - An assessment the undertaking of which has been sanctioned under the provisions of section 49 shall not be considered final until it has been confirmed by the State Government.

(2) At any time before an assessment is so confirmed the Commissioner or Financial Commissioner may, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) modify the assessment of any estate.

(3) Before an enhancement is ordered under the provisions of sub-section (2) the Commissioner or the Financial Commissioner, as the case may be, shall cause reasonable notice to be given to the landowners by proclamation published in this manner described in section 22 to show cause in a petition addressed to the Revenue Officer why the proposed enhancement should not be ordered and the Revenue Officer shall enquire into any objections raised by any landowner and submit such petition received with his report thereon to the Commissioner or the Financial Commissioner, who shall consider the petition and the report and shall also hear the petitioner if he so desires.

53-A DURATION OF ASSESSMENT - The State Government shall, when confirming an assessment under sub-section (1) of section 53, fix a period of time for which the assessment shall remain in force.

(2) The period fixed under sub-section (1) shall be forty years.
Provided that:

(i) a period not exceeding forty years and not shorter than ten years may be fixed for any area, specified by the State Government, in which canal irrigation has been introduced after the date of the orders passed under the provisions of sub-section (1) of Section 51 at the last previous assessment or in which it has been proposed to introduce such irrigation during the period fixed.

The Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887

(ii) a period not exceeding forty years and not shorter than twenty years may be fixed on the expiry of a period fixed under the provisions of clause (i) of this proviso;

(iii) nothing in this sub-section shall affect any assessment in force at the time of the commencement of the Punjab Land Revenue (Amendment) Act, 1928, or apply to an area which has been declared to be an urban assessment circle under the provisions of sub-section (4) of Section 51.

- (f) by annulment of the assessment of that estate or holding;
- (g) by sale of that estate or holding;
- (h) by proceeding against other immovable property of the defaultler.

68. WRIT OF DEMAND : A writ of demand may be issued by a Revenue Officer on or after the day following that in which an arrear of land revenue accrues.

69. ARREST AND DETENTION OF DEFAULTER- (1) At any time after an arrear of land revenue has accrued a Revenue Officer may issue a warrant directing an officer named therein to arrest the defaulter and bring him before the Revenue Officer.

(2) When the defaulter is brought before the Revenue Office, the Revenue Officer may cause him to be taken before the Collector, or may keep him under personal restraint for a period not exceeding ten days and then, if the arrear is still unpaid, cause him to be taken before the Collector.

(3) When the defaulter is brought before the Collector, the Collector may issue an order to the officer-in-charge of the civil jail of the district, directing him to confine the defaulter in the jail for such period not exceeding one month from the date of the order, as the Collector thinks fit.

(4) The process of arrest and detention shall not be executed against defaulter who is a female, a minor, a lunatic or idiot.

70. DISTRESS AND SALE OF MOVABLE PROPERTY AND CROPS: (1) At any time after an arrears of land revenue has accrued, the movable property and uncut or ungathered crops of the defaulter may be distrained and sold by order of a Revenue Officer.

(2) The distress and sale shall be conducted, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the law for the time being in force for the attachment and sale of movable property under the decree of a Revenue Court Constituted under the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887:

Provided that, in addition to the particulars exempted by that law from liability to sale, so much of the produce of the land of the defaulter as the Collector think necessary for seed, grain, and for the subsistence, until the harvest, next following, of the defaulter and his family and of any cattle exempted by that law, shall be exempted from sale under this section.

71. TRANSFER OF HOLDING - (1) At any time, after an arrear of land revenue has accrued on a holding, the Collector may transfer the holding to any, person being a landowner of the estate in which his holding is situated and not being a defaulter in respect of his own holding on condition of his paying the arrear before being put in possession of the holding and on such further conditions as the Collector may deem fit to prescribe.

(2) The transfer may, as the Collector thinks fit, be either till the end of the agricultural year in which the defaulter pays to the transferee the amount of the arrear which the transferee paid before being put in possession of the holding, or for term not exceeding fifteen years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the transfer.

(3) The Collector shall report to the Financial Commissioner any transfer made by him under this section and the Financial Commissioner may set aside the transfer or alter the condition thereof, or pass such other order as he think fit.

(4) A transfer under this section shall not effect the joint and several liability of the landowners of the estate in which it is enforced.

(5) In respect of all rights and liabilities arising under this Act, the person to whom the holding is transferred subject to the conditions of the transfer stand the same positions as that in which the defaulter would have stood if the holding has not been transferred.

when the transfer was for a term, the holding shall, on the expiration of the term, be restored by the collector to the defaulter free of any claim on the part of the Government or the transferee for any arrear of land revenue or rates and cesses due in respect thereof .

72. ATTACHMENT OF ESTATE OR HOLDING: (1) At any time after an arrear of land revenue has accrued, the Collector may cause the estate or holding in respect of which the arrear is due to be attached and taken under his own management or that of an agent appointed by him for that purpose.

(2) The Collector or the agent shall be bound by all the engagements which existed between the defaulter and his rents and profits accruing there from to the exclusion of the defaulter until the arrear has been satisfied, or until the Collector restores the land to the defaulter.

(3) All surplus of the land attached beyond the cost of attachment and management and the amount necessary to meet the current demand for land revenue and rates and cesses shall be applied in discharge of the arrear.

(4) Land shall not be attached for the same arrear for a longer term than five years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the attachment, but, if the arrear is sooner discharged, the land shall be released and the surplus receipt, if any made over to the landowner.

73. ANNULMENT OF ASSESSMENT OF ESTATE OR HOLDING: (1) When an arrear of land revenue has been due for a longer period than one month and the foregoing processes are not deemed sufficient for the recovery thereof, the Financial Commissioner may in addition to or instead of all or any of those processes order the existing assessment of the estate or holding in respect of which the arrear is due, to be annulled.

The Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887

(2) The provisions of this section shall not be put in force for the recovery of an arrear of land revenue which was accrued on land –

- (a) While under attachment under the last foregoing-section, or ;
- (b) While under the charge of the Court of Wards.

(3) When the assessment of any land has been annulled, the Collector may, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, either manage the land himself or through an agent, or let it in form to any person sanctioned by the Financial Commissioner:

Provided that the term for which land may be so managed or formed shall not be longer than fifteen years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the annulment.

(4) At some time before the expiration of that term the Collector shall determine the assessment to be paid in respect of the estate or holding for the remainder of the term of the current assessment of the District or Tehsil, and, when the assessment has been sanctioned by the Financial Commissioner, shall announce it to the landowner.

(5) The landowner may give notice to the Collector of refusal to be liable for the assessment within thirty days from the date on which the assessment was announced to him .

(6) If notice is so given, the collector may, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, take the estate or holding under direct management or farm it for the remainder of the term of the current assessment of the District or Tehsil, or for any period within that term which the Financial Commissioner may fix ..

(7) When the assessment of a holding is annulled, the joint responsibility of the other landowners of the estate for the land revenue of that holding becoming due after, the annulment shall be in abeyance until a new assessment takes effect.

(8) The Financial Commissioner may direct that any contract made by the defaulter; or by any person through whom the defaulter claims, with respect to any land comprised in any estate or holding of which the assessment has been annulled shall not be binding on the Collector or his agent or farmer during the period for which the estate or holding remains under the management of the Collector or his agent or is let in farm.

74. PROCLAMATION OF ATTACHMENT OF ANNULMENT OF ASSESSMENT AND CONSEQUENCE OF THE PROCLAMATION- (1) When any land is attached under Section 72, or when the assessment of any land has been annulled under the last foregoing section, the Collector shall make proclamation thereof.

(2) No payment made by any person to the defaulter before the making of the proclamation on account of rent or any other asset in anticipation of the usual time for the payment shall without the special sanction of the Collector be credited to that person or relieve him from liability to make the payment of the Collector or his agent or farmer.

CASE LAW DIGEST ON
PUNJAB LAND REVENUE ACT, 1887

As per succession certificate and also the will of the deceased, plaintiff and defendants 7, 8 and 9 are entitled to the properties left by the widow in equal shares. Third party claims to be the daughter of the deceased not the •• of defendant 7 or mother of defendant 8 & 9. She stakes her claim on the basis of mutation certificate and will and rights flowing therefrom cannot be granted. Defendants 1 to 4 have made no attempt to annul the succession certificate. Lower appellate court and also the High Court committed serious error of law in not considering the will and the succession certificate which clinches the matter. Succession Act, 1925: Swami v. Smt. Inder Kaur and Ors. : 1997(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (Supreme Court) 200

Section 5-State Government has powers, by a notification, to vary the limits and alter the Tehsils, Districts and Divisions into which the State is divided. Under this power, a new district of Mansa was decided to be created out of the existing district of Bhatinda. During the process, tehsil headquarters were shifted from Sardulgarh to Jhunjhunnir. In equal haste, on representation by various persons and institutions, this tehsil headquarters was shifted back to Sardulgarh. In this petition, the state has been accused of non application of mind, and of acting in a whimsical manner. This was contested by the state. Held-No malafides have been imputed. Ground is that abolishing of the newly created subdivision cum tehsil out of Jhunjhunnir in a hot haste merely spells not that the decision was taken in a whimsical manner etc. Allegations are rebutted on the basis of the document placed on record. Circumstances clearly justify the shifting of sub-division from Jhunjhunnir to Sardulgarh; Darbara Singh and Ors. v. The state of Punjab 1 Ind Anr. : 1996(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (Pb & Hry) 431

S.7-Transfer of case from one FC. to another- Application is neither maintainable before the F.C. Revenue or any other FC. since all F.C.S. have same powers-It must be made to the F.C. in whose court the case is pending OR High Court is the appropriate forum to seek that relief; Hans Raj v. Raj Pal: 1997(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C. Punjab) 94

Ss.11 & 113-Partition-Commissioner Recommended the acceptance of the revision petition as the service of the petitioners was incomplete before AC 1st and the petitioners have condemned unheard. Held-AC 1 st had followed the prescribed procedure to secure their presence by notice as well as by MUSHTRI MUNADI-- Petitioner had shown total disinterest-AC 1 st had to proceed ex parte--Other of the AC 1st cannot be said to be suffering from any illegality or irregularity; Kashmir Singh v. Amar Singh: 1997(1) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C.PB.) 531

Section 13-Appeal is against the findings of the Commissioner when by appointment of appellant was reverted in preference to the respondent. Collector had appointed the appellant contrary to the recommendations of Tehsildar/S.D.O.(C)-Held-Collector had given well reasoned justification for appointment of appellant- Not reason for the Commissioner to interfere with the selection process- Otherwise also order of the Collector in such matters should not be interfered with-Appeal allowed; Mangtuli v. Ram Kishan: (1) All India Land Laws Reporter F.C. (Haryana) 176

Section 13-Collector approved petitioner herein for appointment as a lambardar in preference to the respondent who is a landlord, industrialist and would not be able to discharge functions of a Lambardar in view of his status -Collector has acted with conventional wisdom-Commissioner instead of reversing the orders should have at the most remanded the case for reconsideration- Appeal accepted-Order of the Collector appointing the appellant as Lambardar is upheld-Punjab Land Revenue Rules 1909 Rule 15; Vinod Kumar Tawatia v. Section 13-Appeal against-Motivation Certificate allegedly issued by the General Hospital-Bogus-So are the certificates produced-Held-Collector has thoroughly probed the matter and given his findings, based on evidence and merits-Collectors findings should not have been touched unless perverse-Collectors selection is upheld; Nar Singh v. Mange Ram: 1995(4) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C. Haryana) 181

Section 13-Normally Lambardar appointed by Collector should not be interfered with but the appeal by the rejected candidate, if he is better in terms of merit. should not be dismissed by Commissioner mechanically-Commissioner must see if the choice is rational and balanced-And in deserving cases commissioner has to upset the appointment-No reason for interfering with the selection made by the Commissioner; Bhagwan Singh v. Surjit Singh: 1995(1) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C.) (Pb.) 360

S.13-Rule 1909-Rule 15-Appointment of Lambardar-Collector rejected the candidature of respondent because he was an absentee. a defaulter and illiterate-In appeal Commissioner instead of giving his findings on appeal. gave a finding that petitioner was indulging in party factionalism, which again is not based on evidence also he gave the respondent a benefit that he worked in that capacity after the death of the lambardar and thus acquired experience-Commissioner has been swayed by the fact that about 20 candidates have withdrawn in favour of respondent-HELD-Collector has ignored to look into the points of unauthorised possession of school land by respondent-Also petitioner has been punished by forest department-Case needs a fresh look-Revision accepted-Remanded to District Collector for making a fresh choice; Gumam Singh v. Balbir Singh: 1995(2) All India Land Laws Reporter Vol. 42 (F.C. Punjab) 149

Sections 13 and 16-Appointment of Lambardar- Commissioner upset the orders of the Collector regarding appointment of lambardar- Aggrieved person rsJn appealHeld- Collector gave a reasoned justification for the appointment of the appellant-Why commissioner thought it proper to interfere with that order is not known-Well established principle that Collector's choice should not be interfered with Commissioners orders set aside- Appeal allowed;Mangtu v. Ram Kishan : 1996(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C. HRY) 73

Sections 13 & 16-No appeal is competent against orders of the Commissioner (appeals)-On this sole ground this appeal deserves to be rejected-To eater justice, it was decided to treat the appeal as revision and then to decide it on merits; Chanchal SiAgh v. Sections 34 to 37-Registered will-Revenue Officer is supposed to take note of the Will and change inheritance in mutation- Revenue Officer is not to go into the genuineness of the Will-Is for the Civil Court to look to that aspect; Smt. Krishna Wati v. Ms. Bhoop Singh &Anr.: 1996(1) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C. Haryana) 453

S. 34 to 37-It is not the function of the Revenue Officer in mutation proceedings to _ decide genuineness of the will-It is in the jurisdiction of the Civil Court-Revenue Officer,has to take the Registered will as it is and then record change in mutation- Reference made by the commissioner is declined; Ktishnawati v. Bhoop Singh: 1996(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C.Haryana) 542 –

Ss. 34to37-Change of mutation- Two Wills produced by mother and widow-Both shrouded in suspicious circumstances- Claim to property would not be possible as Wills are not trustworthy-2Held-Inheritance to be bequeathed according to law of succession as ordered by Asstt. Collector 1st Grade; Smt. Kamlesh and Anr. v. Smt. Shanti : 1997(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C. Haryana) 285

S. 34 to 37-Recital in registered sale deed about possession should be enough for entry in mutation and registered sale deed is always to be preferred over a mere sale agreement- Title suit pending in Civil Court-Outcome need not be awaited- Revenue officers have nothing to do with technicalities of law which are to be gone into by Civil Court- Recommendations of the Commissioner accepted-Change in mutation ordered; Vikram Singh and others v. Dan Singh and others: 1997(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C. Haryana) 351

Ss.34 to 37-Locus standi of the respondent to challenge mutation change has been questioned-This change was affected on the basis of the registered sale feeRespondent. a tenant in physical possession has full right to challenge the sanction to change mutation-What is that the possession has not been delivered to the vendees- Punjab Land Recprds Mannual para 7.17 clearly says such change can be sectioned if delivery of possession is transferred-This has not been done since the vendor himself was not in possession-No infirmity or illegality in the impugned order-Punjab Land Records Mannual para 17.7; Gurbej Singh & Ors. v. Jaspal Singh: 1997(1) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C.PB) 282

Sections 34 to 37-Mutation-Statement of parties not recorded on oath-No Portunity to other party to cross-examine and rebut evidence-Defendant claimed to be daughter of the deceased, got the mutation changed in her name as well as that of the plaintiff-On her effort to alienate, plaintiff got her disentitled through a civil suit and having lost the suit in appeal defendant is in High Court— Mutation authorities were examined and the claim of being a daughter of the deceased was considered-Held-Recitals in mutation that plaintiff accepted defendant as her sister cannot be treated as an admission-Defendant being a daughter has not been proved by any documentary or oral witness-Girdawari are routine entires and no conclusive evidence-Concurrent findings of the lower courts are affirmed; Danat Kaur alias Sant Kaur v. have led evidence in support of the respective sale deeds and possession over the respective pieces of land-As such the execution of said deed and the fact of possession on the basis of that is not in dispute-Lower appellate Court has arrived at a correct decision; Rajinder Singh v. Mewa Singh: 1997(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (Pb. & Hry.) 557

Sections 34, 35, 36 and 37-Property of the deceased was mutated in the name of his nephews on the basis of unregistered Will- During the proceedings, the daughter of the deceased was obliged with a change in mutation in her name, but in the absence of the petitioners-Such a change in challenged by petitioners on the grounds of existence of unregistered Will, also not good relations-Also that deceased had not other issue Without going into the merits of the documents submitted, especially by unregistered Will, Mutation should not have been changed on the back of the petitioners-Case remanded to A.C. 1st Grade who may call upon the parties to establish their claims to the suit property; Baldev Singh & another v. Mahinder Kaur: 1995(1) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C.) (Haryana) 589

Ss. 34(3) and 45-Changes in revenue records on the basis of registered document are sought after 15 years-In such a case it would not have been possible for A.C. 1st Grade to decide the mutation-Further, Collector was right to advise the parties to seek remedy in Civil Court-Recommendation of the Commissioner has thus become redundant and infructuous- Petitioners may agitate their case before civil court of competent jurisdiction; Gurdial Singh v. Mohan Singh: 1997(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C., Punjab) 588

Section 36-AC lind, wrongly ordered the correction of Khasra Girdawari with the name of unauthorised occupant, On basis of extraneous factors and without delving deep into the matter-For entry in Khasra Girdawari, occupant must be in cultivating possession Held-law of the land recognises a change brought by due course of law'--It will make a mockery of court orders if possession delivered by revenue authorities in execution of a Civil Court decrees in again disturbed by force, by the persons from whom possession was retrieved-earlier-Drder passed by AC II and collector are set aside-Case remitted to SDO(C)-cum- Collector for necessary action; Talwinder Singh v. Ss. 36-When person recorded in cultivating possession in Khasra Girdawari is absent, spot inspection is unfair and illegal, especially when the revenue record is consequently amended- Person was not present inspite of notice is no justification-Another date should have been fixed to give an opportunity to the person to be present; Gopi v. Mohan Singh: 1997(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C., Punjab) 586

Ss. 36 & 37-On death of the land holder, a shajranasab was prepared and the mutation entered by Halqa Patwari in favour of widow as sole legal heir to hold the property-Entry further verified by Nambardar, Sarpanch and Chowkidar-Brother and sister of the deceased have challenged the mutation on the ground that she was not married to deceased-AC. II Grade had sanctioned the Mutation-Collector made an observation that mutation being contested could be heard and decided by AC.I Grade-Before Collector a wrong mutation had been challenged-Commissioner (Appeals) had pointed out wrong mutation referred and restored the orders of AC. Grade II-Held-Shajra Nasab had been rightly prepared-Brother and Sister of the deceased had no right to be indicated therein-Contention that widow was not the married wife of the deceased, it is just an after thought to create impediments-Such intricate question of law can better be decided by a competent civil Court; Chanchal Singh v. Smt. Pal Kaur : 1997(2) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C.PB.)496

Ss. 36 and 45-Khasra Girdawari upto Rabi 1992 have been incorporated in Jamabandi-Correction thereafter in the name of respondent as ordered by AC. II has become meaningless-Collector rejected the appeal of the petitioner, without application

Section- 44-Punjab Land Records Manual, para99-civil Procedure Code, 1908-Order 26, Rule 9-Lis is between two brothers- Plaintiff claimed possession as also permanent injunction to restrain defendant from interfering with his possession-Claimed he was owner of 1/4th land and further that 3/4th was in his possession on payment of chakota-Suit was decreed by Trial Court-Lower appellate court found no evidence on record that plaintiff had been inducted into possession on payment of chakota- Trial court appointing a local commission to ascertain actual possession was also disproved-Possession was to be determined by the Court itself-Parties cosharers. no injunction could be granted-Dismissed the suit-High Court held-Entries in Revenue Record show that in self cultivating possession of cosharer-Entries having been altered here and there by Patwari are in violation of the instruction issued by Financial Commissioner-Such entry is to be treated as null and void- Findings of the lower appellate court are neither illegal nor erroneous-Lower appellate rightly declined to place any reliance upon the report of Local Commissioner-Meritless appeal is dismissed; Gurcharan Singh v. Kehar Singh (Deceased) by LR : 1997(2) All India Land Laws Reporter (P&H)518

CASE LAW DIGEST ON PUNJAB LAND REVENUE ACT, 1887

S.44- To prove a partition of the property between the deceased father and the sons, entries in Khasra Girdwari has been projected-As held in innumerable cases, presumption of truth attached to mutation is only to the extent of the possession and cultivation-In no way the entries in mutation can speak for the title to proper-Authorities while assessing estate duty rightly took the view that entire property stood in the name of the deceased-An on his death developed on his two sons; Teja Singh v. Union of India: 1997(2) All India Land Laws Reporter (P& H) 510

S.44-Punjab Village Common Lands (Reg.) Act.1961-S.2(g)- Petitioner claim to land is resisted by the Gram Panchayat-Land shown as "Gair Mumkin Johar" and possession shown as that of Gram Panchayat in Jamabandi-Presumption attached to jamabandi under Punjab Land Revenue Act is not rebutted-No construction made on the land-Tethering cattle thereon by the petitioners is no proof of exclusive possession-Petitioners have not been able to bring their case in any of the exceptions as mentioned in S.2(g) of the said Act-Findings recorded by Commissioner are not patently illegal which require interference; Prem Singhv. The Joint Director of Panchayats, Punjab: 1997(2) All India Land Laws Reporter (P & H) 349

S. 44-During consolidation share of 'J' third deceased brother was allotted to progeny of 'P', the defendants-Was thus denied to plaintiffs and hence the'Suit- Trial Court found from revenue records produced that plaintiffs had 1/3 share in the property- That predecessor of plaintiff did not succeed to the share of "J" on his death-Finding confirmed by lower appellate Court and hence this Regular Second Appeal- Held-Onus to prove that plaintiffs were owners of the suit land and are in possession of it was on the Plaintiffs-They did not lead any evidence in the shape of revenue records--There is a rebuttable presumption of correctness attached to revenue entries-Record of jamabandis from 1967-68 upto 1972-73 have been placed on record by defendants-Names of plaintiffs or their predecessor-in-interest appear nowhere-Findings of the Courts below are affirmed; Swarani Devi v. Bhagat Ram: 1997(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (Pb. & Hry.) 573

S. 44-Presumption of truth attached to jamabandis-Rebuttable-One co-sharer sold his share in disputed land to other co- sharers-His name continued in Jamabandis-'If it stands established from evidence that parties did not remain co- sharers, correctness of Jamabandi is rebutted- -Once a cosharer sells his share to other cosharers, parties did not remain cosharers-correctness of jamabandi is rebutted-report of the Local Commissioner has clearly shown that defendants were in possession of land in excess of their share- Defendant is duty bound to restore possession to the plaintiff; Sardara Singh v. Dilbagh Singh: 1997(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (Pb.& Hry.) 577 •

S. 45-Appellants filed a suit for declaration as owners in possession of land and correction of entries in revenue record--Resisted by Gram Panchayat as suit was not maintainable in Civil Court in view of the bar of Section13 village Common Land Act-Held-Assistant Collector had earlier decided that land in dispute stands excluded from the-purview of shamlat deh- Present suit is for correction of entries revenue records.Suit maintainable in Civil Court under S. 45 of the Punjab LandRevenue Act,1887-Punjab Village common Lands (Regulation) Act, 1961-S. 13; Chiranji.Lal & Ors. V. Gram Panchayat of Village Kojinda & Ors. : 1997(3) All India Land LawsReporter (Pb. & Hry.) 372

S. 45-Plaintiffs suit is for declaration that they are owners in possession of the land and are entitled to get their names duly recorded in the revenue records--Gram Panchayat claimed the said land to be shamlat deh- In view of the bar of S. 13 of Village Common Lands (Reg.) Act, suit was dismissed by Trial Court, upheld by lower appellate court-Hence this appeal- Held-By an earlier judgment between the parties, Asstt.Collector 1st Grade had decided that subject matter of adjudication did not vest in the Gram Panchayat-What remains is the controversy with regard to the entries inrevenue record-

CASE LAW DIGEST ON PUNJAB LAND REVENUE ACT. 1887

As per S. 45 of 1887 Act, suit is maintainable before a court of competent jurisdiction i.e. Civil Court- case remanded to Trial Court to decide the matter on merits-Punjab Village Common Lands (Regulation) Act, 1961- Section 13; Chiranji Lal v. S 45-Petitioners allege that Asstt. Collector IInd Grade ordered change in Khasra Girdwari without any notice to the petitioner or his predecessor-in- interest, who was/were in cultivating possession-This is in complete contravention of prescribed manner as provided in Punjab Land Manual para 9.9- Proof in favour of change has to be placed on record-Petitioner further alleged that a fraud is writ large as is evident from spot inspection resulting in the change- Evidently the change was made on 19.10.1989 and purchase was affected on 21.12.1989- Held-Orders of correction were passed before the purchase was affected-Petitioners had no locus standi at that time (of change)-Entry challenged has been incorporated in the jamabandi- -Revenue officers have no jurisdiction-Civil Court decree relied upon is yet subjudice-Appeal dismissed; Gurmail Singh v. Man Kaur : 1997(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C. Haryana) 400

S.45-Constitution of India, Art.226-Dispute is in respect of a piece of land which was once upon a time shamlat deh and has now by mutation and Jamabandi come to be entered as belonging to Municipality-Appellant have challenged this title and right by a Writ petition-Both Parties have hotly contested-the claims. title and interest of each other Questions are a disputed question of fact-Held-Such question can be decided under the provisions of Land Revenue Act-S.45 provides that any person considering himself aggrieved as to any right regarding entries in records of rights, he can file a suit for declaration in Civil Court only under the provisions of Specific Relief Act; Lehna Singh v. The State of Haryana & Ors.: 1996(1) All India Land Laws Reporter (P&H) 576

Ss.67(b) and 69-Industrial Disputes Act, 1947-Ss.33-C(1) and Ss.33-C(2)-Labour court had confirmed that a sum of Rs.62,000/- was due to the workers and directed recovery as like arrears of land revenue-On failure to pay. arrest warrants were issued against the appellant-Appellant has impugned the recovery under land Revenue Act and issue of warrants for arrest without notice -Held-Act does not contemplate issuance of any notice prior to issue of warrants for arrest-Appellant avoided not only payment but also presenting himself in the Court-Procedure of issuance of prior notice tends to frustrate effectively the clauses (b) of S.67 and-aid as;ever to avoid process of recovery by arrest 7detention-Constitution of India, Art. 14 and 21; Sardar Dilshar Singh v. The Labour Comm. & Anr.: 1996(1) All India Land Laws Reporter (Supreme court) 348

5.69 & 67(b)-labour Court directed arrears of salary, bonus etc. to be recovered from the appellants as arrears of land Revenue--Appellant has not only failed to pay but has also avoided bailiff and at one stage assured him to appear before the.collector, failed in that also—On Warrant of arrest being issued had challenged the Constitutional validity of these provisions of Punjab land Revenue Act, under Article 21 &14-Held-When the movable properties were sought to be attached appellant undertook to appear in the Court but did not turn up-Law does not contemplate issuance of any prior notice before warrants-Procedure of issuance of prior notice tends to frustrate the effectivity of clause(b) of Section 67 of the Act-Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 Section 33-C(2); S. S. 111 read with S. 158(9)(XVII)- Plaintiff-respondent were not party to deed of partition- Admitted that even after order passed by F.C. in 1982, land has been shown as joint property- Plaintiff-respondent recorded as co-sharers-F.C. in his order date February 3, 1982 has clearly said that question of title was left to be decided by Civil Court-In this situation it cannot be said that Civil Court did not have jurisdiction to pronounce upon the title of the parties-No merit in review; Sant Ram and others v.,Baldev Singh: 1997(3) All India land Laws Reporter (Pb. & Hry.) 492

S.111-Partition-Mode of partition sanctioned-Land not given to parties. as per their shares-Land sold by S. was not shown in his share-Although mutated in Jamabandi, correct jamabandi was not presented before A.C., 1st Grade-Some more entries have been made-For unequitable distribution, appeal is accepted; Jarnail Singh v. Joginder Singh & Ors.: 1996(2) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C.,Pb.) 516

Section 111-Commissioner (Appeals) has recommend the acceptance of Revision petition filed against the order of lower revenue authorities-Respondent had filed an application for partition of joint properties of a part of which he was the purchaser-No mutation had been entered in his name but he is entitled partition if he can establish his claim-Revenue officer before ordering partition had to satisfy about the claim of the applicant in accordance with S. 111 (a) or (b) or (c)- Bonafide purchaser of land on the basis of a registered sale deed in adequate proof of the claim of Respondent- Commissioner's recommendations cannot be accepted-Petitioner dismissed;Sis Ram

v. Ram Mohar : 1996(3) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C. Haryana) 499

Section 111 and 112- Three co-sharers-Apply for partition of the joint Kehwat-One cosharer died-In mutation the LRs were shown in the share-In between the LRs there was a civil suit as regards interest shares-Partition cannot take place during pendency of a civil litigation, which pertains to the share of the deceased-Co-sharer, would not hold good in this case- Partition can go on an respective shares of the LRs can be partitioned only after the decision of the civil suit in the pending litigation;. Smt. Jani & Ors. v. Kishan Lal : 1997(2.) AUtodia Land Laws Reporter (F.C. HRY) 37

Ss. 111, 113. 114 and 116- Petitioner prays for setting aside of partition proceedings in which he has not appeared deliberately- By collusion with his brother and son has delayed the proceedings by 8 years at mode of partition stage- To say that he did not know of the proceedings. defective service, is fallacious since his brother and son, living in the same viillage are regular attending-Petitioner can join the proceedings prospectively and submit his objections to mode of partition; Amrik Singh v. Charan Kaur :1997(3) All

India Land Laws-Reporter (F:C., Haryana) 554

Sections 111, 116 and123-Private partition- Unless reported to Revenue Authorities, entered into revenue records and actually acted upon between the parties, partition cannot be recognized under law-partition proceedings pending before the Astt. IInd grade shall continue; Thandia v. Roshan and Anr.: 1995(4) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C. Haryana) 53

Sections 111 to 116-Appeal is against concurrent orders of lower Revenue Courts in a partition of Joint Khata-in the absence of the petitioner who. did not appear despite notice Naqsha Bey, was prepared by the Asst. Col. 1st Grade-Appeals were dismissed II through-Contest is just on one point, that no notice was issued to the petitioners and then his appeals were rejected-Counter is that petitioners deliberately absented and the attacks on Naqsha Bey had become infructuous-Held- Petitioners have failed to point out any illegality in the orders passed by lower courts-No reason to interfere in the well reasoned orders passed by them- Petitioners have been allotted land as per their shares and according to the quality-Naqsha Bey has been rightly approved; Kartar Kaur v. Mahla Singh and others: 1995(1) All India Land Laws Reporter F.C. (Pb.) 500

Section 111 and 116-Whereas the sons of Gian Singh (Deceased) made an application for separation of his share out of joint land and the said application was allowed. the revision is filed by his widow, Bawi impugning the order dated 14.11.1993-Held- Partition of land was done as per shares recorded in Jamabandi for the year 1985-86-Petitioner neither shown as a shareholder in Joint Khata nor her right to any share has been established by a court decree, nor has her right in the land been acknowledged in writing by all the person interested--Petitioner has no locus standi to challenge the order of A.C. 1st Cadre; Bawi (Smt.) v. Bakhtawar Singh: 1997(2) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C.PB.) 543

Section 111 to 116-Partition of land between the parties- Assistant Collector, allowed the application for partition and laid down mode of partition-Land partitioned-Petitioners file objections-No arrangements have been offered-Held-Parties raised no objection when mode of partition was sanctioned by the Assistant Collector-No irregularity or illegality in the proceedings of the lower Courts have been shown-Petition has no force-Dismissed; Gurmukh Singh & Anr. v. Sardul Singh & Ors.: 1995(2) All India Land Laws Reporter Vol. 42 (F.C. Revenue Punjab) 440

Ss.111,118 and 118(2)-Mode of partition-Provision of Section 118 are clear and categorical-It specifically debars second appeal against, the order passed under Section 118(2)-Second order cannot be challenged even in revision-In case applicant is dissatisfied with the original or the appellate order regarding mode of partition, he must withdraw his application for partition-that would close the matter UNLESS, other co-sharers wish the separation of their shares-Revision rejected being redundant--Case remanded to ACI to proceed further to effect partition as per mode of partition; Harnam Singh (Dead) Thru Lrs. v. Ganda Singh: 1997(1) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C.PB) 527

Sections 111 and 123-Private Partition-Without intervention of Revenue Officers-Affirmation of partition by Revenue Officer is a must, and he would do so after satisfying himself about the genuineness of the private partition-All the Co-sharers must have made a joint acceptance of partition-Unanimous acceptance by all co-sharer, of all provisions of a partition agreement is a hallmark of the partition, done privately-With a view to safeguard against the dissent by any member, it would be prudent to present the document jointly for affirmation-it is both subjective as well as objective satisfaction of the Revenue officer, according to which document is to be accepted satisfaction of the officer to which document is to be accepted and satisfaction of the Revenue officer, according to which document is to be accepted and mutation ordered accordingly Held- Document dated 12.2.1984 has been proved faulty-Second alleged document dated 18.4.1989 is a bogus and fabricated document-No cognizance is to be taken of this document-Revision petition is rejected-Reference by Commissioner is rejected-Orders of AC 1st grade as well as Collector are upheld; Amerjit Singh v. Shangara Singh: 1997(2) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C.PB.) 99

Ss.111 and 123-Petitioner initially filed an application under Section 111 for seeking partition-Later on parties by joint request and concurrence approached the Revenue Officer to treat the application under Section 123 as they had already affected private partition-Request granted---Instrument of partition was drawn up-It is thereafter that petitioner filed an appeal, stating that actual partition was not in terms of the agreement of partition-Held-No appeal was competent as law of estoppel had operated--Revenue Officer had affirmed the private partition with the express consent of the parties-No party could resile- If change of posture is allowed to the parties, mechanism provided under Section 123 of the Act will become sheer otiose: Gulzar Singh v. Kashmir Singh: 1996(4) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C., Pb.) 65

S. 112(2)-Well-Common to all co-sharers for irrigation-One co-sharer cannot deprive others the right of irrigation by removing the persian wheel and by installing tubewell-Defendant rightly directed to restore persian wheel or allow use of tubewell on payment-Injunction declined by lower Courts upheld-Civil Procedure Code, 1908-0. 39, R. 1; Mahanga Ram v. Gurdail Singh and others: 1997(4) All India Land Laws Reporter (Pb. & Hry.) 540

Sections 113 and 118(2)-Petition-Mode of partition-Only two of the 15 persons interested in partition have challenged the partition on very generalised grounds and not on any specific ground of illegality or irregularity-It appears the remaining 13 interested persons are satisfied with partition-When the mode of partition has not been challenged and when partition has been carried out according to mode of partition, no challenge can be entertained; Kashmir Singh v. Amar Singh: 1997(1) All India Land Laws Reporter (FC.PB) 531

Section 116-Partition-Allowed to proceed by the Assistant Collector IInd Grade-'And application for partition was "by the persons who had purchased the specific Khasra' numbers in a joint land-Challenged-Held-It has been recognised in 1981 ALL INDIA LAND LAWS REPORTER 356 that a sale of a specific portion of land by co-sharer would be a sale of joint land with reference to a specific share--and therefore purchaser can get the land partitioned-No merit in the Revision petition which is dismissed; Dariya Singh v. Surender Singh & Ors.: All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C. Haryana) 571 . Ss.116 & 112-Partition-Partial partition-Petitioners application for partition was rejected by A.C.1 Grade as it was for partial partition-Petitioner was not a cosharer in all Khewats-Upheld to understand in what way application made by petitioner is a case of partial partition-Those Khewats where respondent etc. are not common share holders have been included in the application-Those could be partitioned-Orders passed by A.c.1st Grade, Collector as well as the Commissioner are very unfortunate, have resulted in avoidable 12 years of litigation and has cost so dear;y to the petitioner; Dalip Singh v. Kartar Singh: 1997(1) All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C. PB) 325

Sections 116 and 118-- Petitioners seek a writ of Certiorari / mandamus to the respondents to the effect*that~ordercS issued by A.C.I., Commissioner and Financial Commissioner concerning mode of partition-Held-While determining the meht mode of partition, the agreement arrived at between the parties, their settled possession since 1973, nature of cultivation quality of land have all been taken into consideration by the Revenue authorities-No violation of the provisions of Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887 has been shown--As,held.in 1994 (1) ALL INDIA LAND LAWS REPORTER 307--This court cannot assume the role of an appellate court, in its writ jurisdiction-Constitution of India, Article 226; Punjab Singh v. TheFinancial Commissioner Haryana: 1996(4) All India Land Laws Reporter (P&H) 510

Ss.117, 118-Mode of partition-Instrument of partition-After the partition was completed, instrument of partition was drawn up and sanctioned-Partition became final Revision against the instrument of partition which is enforceable litre a decree of a civil court passed for immovables property, is not competent- Revision petition rejected; Sangara Singh v. Sampuran Singh: 1996(4).All India Land Laws Reporter (F.C.,Pb.) 62

Sections 118(2) and 16-Application for feview or for recall lacks any merit-Subject of appeal is instrument of partition and not "NAQSHA JEEM" that is mode of partition-Whereas an appeal/revision is maintainable against mode of partition, final instrument of partition cannot be attacked: Bawa Singh v.
